

'Be Creative @ Your Library.'

Kids can register and pick up a start-up kit at the library starting June 1st. Both kids and teen programs will start June 8th and run 8 weeks.

The library will have a children's program for ages 5 to 12. Kids will be asked to read a minimum of 1 hour per day, 5 days a week to receive a prize. One prize per week. Activities Day at the library will be on Thursdays for those children participating in the reading program. Activities will be held from 1:00pm to 2:30pm. Advance sign-up is recommended for space is limited. As an added bonus, the staff and volunteers will be planning two field trips this summer. In addition, Robert Halbrook will be presenting his "Imagineering at your Library" show, Thursday, July 23 @ 2pm (location to be decided). This show is open for all ages.

'Express yourself @ your Library'

The library teen reading program is for ages 13 to 18. Teens are encouraged to read from a chapter book (of 200 pages or more) for a minimum of 1 hour per day. Names will go into a grand prize drawing at the end of the 8 week program. The library will also have special programs for teens. "Mystery at the Library for Teens" will be July 25th, time to be announced.
